

Speech and Hearing Clinic,
Tygerberg Hospital
and
Division of Speech-Language and Hearing
Therapy, Stellenbosch University

Symposium

Professional Identity and Basic Caring Skills within the Framework of Medical Ethics and Disability

Save the date!
Friday 13 April 2012

Time: 12:00 until 16:15

Venue: Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Stellenbosch - Tygerberg Campus, Education Building, Floor 1, Lecture Hall 7

Cost: R250 (student discount: R190)

Afternoon tea and refreshments will be served

CPD Accreditation pending:

Proposed: 6 CEU's (including 4 Ethics points)

Closing date for registration: Friday, 30 March

Please complete the attached registration form and send to faheema@sun.ac.za; Contact details: 021-9389494

Attendance: CPD accreditation only for registered Speech Therapists & Audiologists, but all other professionals interested are welcome!

Prof Daniël Louw:

- * Professional Identity within the Framework of Medical Ethics – Burnout, Compassion Fatigue and Moral decision making.
- * The ABC of Ethical Counselling – practical guidelines and restoring human dignity.

Dr Erika Oosthuysen:

- * Social Care within disadvantaged communities and children with hearing loss and communication difficulties: Referral and Parental Guidance.

Dr Nathanie Naudé:

- * Etiological diagnosis in the Hearing Impaired Newborn: Proposal of a flow chart to guide diagnosis.

* Programme:

11:30 Opening of exhibitions

12:00 - 12:30 Registration

12:30 - 13:15 Dr Nathanie Naudé:

Etiological diagnosis in the Hearing Impaired Newborn: Proposal of a flow chart and a stepwise approach to detect the cause of hearing loss in children with congenital sensorineural hearing loss.

13:15 - 14:00 Prof Daniël Louw:

Professional Identity within the framework of Medical Ethics:

- * The risk of Burnout and Compassion Fatigue
- * Moral decision making in caregiving professions

14:00 - 14:30 Tea & Refreshments - Opportunity to view exhibitions

14:30 - 15:15 Dr Erika Oosthuysen

Social Care within the disadvantaged communities - focusing on children with hearing loss and speech & language difficulties: Referral and Parental guidance.

15:15 - 16:00 Prof Daniël Louw

The ABC of ethical counselling within the professional encounter - practical guidelines and the importance of restoring human dignity.

16:00 - 16:15 Interactive session & questions and answers

Presenters:

- * Prof DJ Louw: Former Dean of Faculty of Theology, University of Stellenbosch; Served on the Medical and Ethical Research Council & President of International Council on Pastoral Care and Counselling.
- * Dr Erika Oosthuysen: Medical Social Worker, Carel du Toit Centre - Tygerberg Hospital. Private practice (after hours) - marriage counselling, family therapy, play therapy, mediation and assessments for contact and care. Serve on committee of the Western Cape Association for Social Workers in Private Practice & on the Western Cape Association for Play Therapy.
- * Dr Nathanie Naude: ENT Specialist, Cochlear Implant Unit, Tygerberg Hospital - University of Stellenbosch; Private Practice - Durbanville Medic Clinic.