

Leratong Hospital

1 Adcock Street, Chamdor,
Krugersdorp

The hospital is situated about 35km from Central Johannesburg and about 70km from Pretoria

The following audiology equipment is available: Otoscope, High frequency and Low frequency Tympanometer, Screening Otoacoustic Emissions & Auditory Brainstem Response, Screening Audiometer, Diagnostic Audiometer with Visual Reinforcement, Auditory Brainstem and Steady State Response, Hearing Aid Analyser and Hi Pro box.

The Speech Therapy and Audiology Department also have Boardmaker, various toys as well as feeding equipment. There is a computer, printer, internet access and resource books as well.

Audiology services include neonatal screening, paediatric screening, diagnostic services for paediatrics & adults, hearing aid fitting & verification, aural rehabilitation for paediatrics & adults as well as hearing aid tea parties !

Speech Therapy services include in-patient services for neonates through to geriatrics (feeding & communication), workshops for caregivers of children with communication difficulties and out-patient services for adults and children under the age of 6 years.

Multidisciplinary team services include a neonatal follow-up clinic and developmental clinic for individuals & groups.

"It is a small scale Bara!"
- Community Service Therapist (2011)

Contact details:
(011) 411-3526 / 3737 (t)
(011) 410-8421 (f)
speechtherapy.leratong@gauteng.gov.za